W: But doing homework is a good way to review what students learned at school.

M: According to the article, students need time to relax and play with their friends after school.

W: That makes sense. But I'm worried that students will play computer games all day long if they have no homework to do.

M: I'm worried about that, too.

다음을 듣고, 물음에 답하십시오.

M: Hello, everyone. Are you tired of working out alone in a gym? If you're looking for a fun way to keep yourself in good health, consider joining a team sport club. Joining a team and playing sports with its members is very enjoyable. For example, if you play soccer with others, you will laugh at your mistakes and encourage your teammates while improving your health and soccer skills. In addition, you can have a chance to meet new people. On my hockey team, I met a lot of people from many different backgrounds. If you have no experience playing team sports and have difficulty finding a club that you can join, start with the popular sports such as baseball and basketball rather than something unfamiliar. I hope you can find the right club and have fun.
