4. 대화를 듣고, 남자의 의견으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Stella, I'm going to sign up for the Study Buddy Program. Will you join me?

W: I've never heard about that program. What is it about?

M: It's about teaching the subject you're good at to your friend.

W: Wouldn't it take too much time? I don't have enough time for my own study.

M: I know what you're worried about, but actually teaching others can help you with your study.

W: Hmm.... What makes you think so?

M: It's based on my experience. Last winter, I taught my cousin, Paul, math. At first I thought I was teaching him, but I was learning, too.

W: That's interesting. Can you be more specific?

M: When I tried to explain to Paul how to solve math problems, I realized I didn't fully understand some basic concepts. I had to study more to teach him.

W: So, you have learned more by teaching others.

M: That's right. I'm sure if you participate in this program, you can learn even more.

5. 대화를 듣고, 두 사람의 관계를 가장 잘 나타낸 것을 고르시오.

M: Excuse me, is this Ms. Thompson's house? We're here for the in-home survey.

W: Oh, yes. Please come on in.

W: Sure. Come this way. I have three rooms but I don't have much to move.

M: Okay. Let me see.... So you have a refrigerator, a washing machine and an air conditioner.

W: Right. Those are all of the big appliances I have. But I have many flower pots. Do you charge extra for them?

M: No. We don't charge extra money for flower pots.

W: That's great.

M: I think a 3-ton truck will cover all your belongings.

W: All right. I'm planning to move three weeks from today. Are you available then?

M: Well, we don't have anything booked on that day.

W: Great. Please send me the estimate.

M: Okay. I'll do that right away when I return to my office.

6. 대화를 듣고, 그림에서 대화의 내용과 일치하지 않는 것을 고르시오.

M: Have you thought about how we will furnish our student lounge?

W: Yes, I have. I found a photo of a cool student lounge. We can get some good ideas from this photo.

M: Let me have a look. It looks good and cozy. I especially like that large sofa on the right.

W: What about the round clock above the sofa?

M: I like its simple design.

W: But the dart board next to the window doesn't look very nice. We might break the window if we threw darts.

M: I agree. We'd better not hang anything next to the window.

W: There's a large TV on the left wall. Don't we need one like that?

M: Yes. We could use it for presentations or watching movies.

W: The round table and chairs in the middle of the room look convenient.

M: Yeah. Let's ask our school to order something similar to them.

W: Let's check. I've packed life jackets, towels, and sunscreen in that bag over there.

M: Great. Hmm..., do we need waterproof cellphone cases?

W: Oh, right. We'll need a couple of them to take pictures while rafting.

M: Yeah, we can capture every moment without worrying about our phones getting wet.

W: I'll go buy the cases right away. By the way, did you get our tent back from David?

M: Ah, I forgot it. I'll go to his place and get it back from him while you're out.

W: Okay, sounds good.

8. 대화를 듣고, 여자가 제주도 여행을 취소한 이유를 고르시오.

W: Hi, Nick. Do you have any special plans for the summer?

M: After taking a summer class for two weeks, I'm planning to travel to Malaysia with my family. My father told me to make plans.

W: That sounds fun.

M: Yeah, so I'm doing some research on Malaysia. What about you? Are you going to work part-time as you did last summer?

W: No. Actually, I was planning to visit Jeju Island, but I canceled it.

M: Why did you cancel it?

W: I have a cousin living in Canada and she's coming to visit Korea during the summer. I'd like to spend time with her and show her around Seoul.

M: It seems that you're going to have a good time with your cousin.

W: Yeah. Also, we are going to a K-pop concert. We're big fans of K-pop and I already booked the tickets.

M: Sounds great. Have a nice summer!

W: The large ones are $5 each, and the small ones are $3 each, regardless of fragrance.

M: That's nice. I'll take two large ones, one vanilla and one strawberry.

W: Excellent. You might also need candle holders for them.

M: How much are they?

W: The glass candle holders are $1 each, and the metal ones are $2 each.

M: I'll take two glass holders. Can I use this coupon I downloaded from your website?

W: Of course. That gets you $2 off the total price.

M: Wonderful. Here's my credit card.

10. 대화를 듣고, Kite Flying Competition에 관해 언급되지 않은 것을 고르시오.

W: Mike, what are these?

M: I'm making a kite for the Kite Flying Competition, Mom.

W: I've heard about that. When is it going to be this year?

M: It'll be on March 30th.

W: It's only one week away. Where will it take place?

M: At Citizens Park. It's near my school. Can you come?

W: Sure. Dad and I will be there to cheer for you. Do you need any help in your kite-making?

M: Yes. Please hold this frame while I glue the paper.

W: Okay. This will be a beautiful kite. By the way, how do they decide the winners?

M: The judges will rate the kites on the basis of how beautiful they are and how high up they go.

W: I see. I hope you can win a prize.

W: That's terrific!

W: No, I'm looking for a pet carrier for my puppy.

M: All right. I can definitely help you with that. We have a variety of pet carriers. Is there a specific feature you'd like?

W: Yes. It should be foldable. I don't have much space in my place.

M: Good point. We have foldable ones. How big is your puppy?

W: He is a poodle and weighs about 6 kg.

M: Then you can choose from these small or medium ones.

W: I think either size would be fine for my puppy.

M: All right. Which color do you prefer, gray or yellow?

W: I prefer a gray one. It wouldn't get stained easily.

M: Good choice. Then you have two options left. Which one would you take?

W: I'd like the cheaper one.

M: Okay. Then I'll go get a new one from the storage room.

W: Thanks.

M: I guess you're talking about the model Number 101. It's really popular now.

W: Yes. I'd like to ask if you have a size 38 in your store.

M: Okay. Let me check if they're in stock. [typing sound] We have two pairs.

W: Oh, I'm so glad! I've called five other stores so far and you're the only one who has them! So, how can I get them?

M: You can either pick them up at our store or place an order for delivery.

W: Umm.... How long does it take to get them delivered? I live on Main Street.

M: It usually takes three days.

W: Then I'd like to go grab the sneakers myself. I guess I can visit you tomorrow. But what if somebody else takes them?

M: Okay. Have you invited them already?

W: Not yet. I'm going to make invitation cards tonight.

M: Good idea! How will you send the invitations to your friends?

W: I was thinking of handing them out at school.

M: Well, I don't think it's very considerate.

W: Really? Why do you think so?

M: There are many other classmates who are not invited. If you hand out the invitations in front of them, they may get hurt.

W: Oh, I didn't think about that.

M: They may feel they are left out. You know how it feels, sweetie.

W: _____

15. 다음 상황 설명을 듣고, Carla가 노인사에게 할 말로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Carla works at an electronics store. One day, an elderly gentleman comes to her store and looks for a gift for his granddaughter. Carla recommends several products within the gentleman's budget range. The man is now considering two options. One is a pair of headphones and the other is a pair of wireless earphones. Before making a decision, the man asks Carla for advice. Carla thinks that the wireless earphones would be a better choice. She uses them for herself and is quite happy with them, so she thinks the man's granddaughter would like them, too. In this situation, what would Carla most likely say to the elderly gentleman?

[16 ~ 17] 다음을 듣고, 물음에 답하십시오.

M: Good morning, listeners. Today, I'd like to talk about vegetables and fruits. Have you thought about how your refrigerator is never large enough to store all the fresh vegetables and fruits? Here's a tip that can help you with that problem. This is effective and doesn't require any room in your refrigerator. Besides, it doesn't consume any electricity. Sand is the key. If you have a cool basement or other cool areas in your house, you can store fresh foods there, in cardboard or wooden boxes filled with sand. Firm root vegetables like carrots and radishes last longer in the sand. Ginger and onions also stay fresh in the sand for up to a month. Just spread out the vegetables and cover them with sand. Since the sand regulates humidity, it can keep the produce from rotting. Firm fruits such as apples and pears can be stored in sand, too. There's one thing to remember, though. Don't wash the vegetables or fruits before storing, because it speeds rotting. So now, all you need to do is get a bag or two of clean sand at the market. Now, let's take a commercial break. Stay tuned!
