W: Jake, what did you do yesterday?

M: I went to the stadium to cheer on my school soccer team.

W: No doubt it was exciting. What was the result?

M: _____

2. 대화를 듣고, 남자의 마지막 말에 대한 여자의 응답으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

3. 다음을 듣고, 여자가 하는 말의 목적으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Good morning, students. This is Lily James, your school principal. I know most of you have gotten a lot of useful advice through our school counseling office. Our counselor Mr. Brown has been so helpful since he came to our school. We all want to say “thank you” for his hard work and good advice. But sadly, he is moving to the State Counseling Center next week. So, I’m sorry to announce that our school counseling office will be temporarily closed from next Monday. Of course, we will open the office as soon as we find a new counselor. I’m sorry again that you won’t be able to use the counseling office for a while. Thank you for listening.

4. 대화를 듣고, 남자의 의견으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Honey, how about sending Julia to piano class?

W: Well, I'm not sure. Don't you think she's too young?

M: It may be hard for her at first, but I think piano lessons would be helpful.

W: What makes you think so?

M: Playing the piano helps kids physically by making them move their fingers.

W: In that case, drawing might be better because it's easy and fun.

M: What's more, playing the piano can improve children's musical awareness in several ways.

W: Can you be more specific?

M: I mean children can learn how to read music and develop their sense of rhythm.

W: That makes sense. So, let's give it a try.

M: Believe me! I'm sure she will like it.

5. 대화를 듣고, 두 사람의 관계를 가장 잘 나타낸 것을 고르시오.

W: Hello, Mr. Smith.

M: Oh, Mrs. Roberts, I'm glad to work with you again.

W: Me, too. It was a pleasure to draw pictures for your last book.

M: Your pictures made my book more attractive to children. The little bear was especially cute.

W: Thank you. Is there anything you want to emphasize on the cover of your new book?

M: Yes. The story is about a father and his daughter. So, I want to show the father's love clearly.

W: Then, I'll draw the father putting his arms around his daughter.

M: That's great. How about drawing her with a big smiling face?

W: Then the daughter will look more cheerful.

M: That's exactly what I want.

W: Okay. After finishing the book cover design, I will e-mail my first draft to you.

M: Alright. I look forward to seeing your work soon.

6. 대화를 듣고, 그림에서 대화의 내용과 일치하지 않는 것을 고르시오.

M: What are you looking at, Alice?

W: Hi, Ji Hoon. I'm looking at this picture taken on Crazy Hair Day at school.

M: Crazy Hair Day? What's that?

W: It is a day when students come to school with creative hairstyles.

M: Oh, that's why there is a 'CRAZY HAIR DAY' poster on the bulletin board.

W: Right. We put balloons beside the poster to brighten up the mood.

M: Good. Your snowman hairstyle was quite creative.

W: Thanks, I got the idea from the Internet. Look at this boy sitting on the chair with the snake hairstyle. He said he did it on his own.

M: Really? He must have drawn the attention of all the students. By the way, what are the sprays on the floor for?

W: They were for coloring our hair. We could color our hair easily with them.

M: Sounds like you had a pleasant experience.

7. 대화를 듣고, 여자가 할 일로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Peter, it's finally time to go on our honeymoon to Hawaii.

M: Great! I'm so excited! What time did you say the airplane is at?

W: It's at 8:20. Let's check if everything is prepared.

M: OK. I have our passports here, and the flight reservation number is on my smartphone.

W: Very nice! Did you make sure we can use your credit card there?

M: Don't worry. It is accepted anywhere we go.

W: Great. And where are our suitcases?

M: I already put them in the car. Is that all we need?

W: Actually, there are two more things: a camera and our sunglasses.

M: A camera? Smartphones are better for taking pictures, but we do need sunglasses to protect our eyes from the sun.

W: OK. Then, I'll bring a pair for each of us.

8. 대화를 듣고, 여자가 친구의 병문안을 갈 수 없는 이유를 고르시오.

M: Hi, Emily. How was your family trip last weekend?

W: It was fantastic! Did you have a nice weekend, too?

M: It was fine, but Jenny had an accident yesterday, so she is absent from school today.

W: Oh, what happened to her?

M: She broke her leg at a ski camp.

W: That's too bad. Is she in a hospital now?

M: Yeah, so tomorrow some of her friends and I will visit her after school. Can you join us?

W: I'm afraid I can't. I have other plans for tomorrow.

M: Are you still learning Taekwondo every afternoon?

W: No, my lessons ended last week. We're having a birthday party for my mom.

M: Oh, I see. You can't miss that.

W: Thanks for understanding. Anyway, I'll give Jenny a call later.

9. 대화를 듣고, 남자가 지불할 금액을 고르시오.

W: Mike, what are you doing with your smartphone?

M: I'm looking for nice picture frames for our school exhibition.

W: Umm... This metal frame looks nice.

M: Yes, but it costs 50 dollars. It's too expensive!

W: I see, so you need cheaper ones.

M: Right. Look! How about this wooden frame? It is 30 dollars cheaper than the metal frame, and it comes in several colors.

W: Nice find! I think the blue and brown ones are good matches for the pictures.

M: OK, then I will order 5 blue frames and 5 brown ones.

W: Wait! Read this pop-up message. If you fill out this survey, the online-mall will give you a coupon for a $10 discount.

M: Great! That's not difficult! (button sound) Wow, the coupon was downloaded.

W: Good deal. Let's order them right now with the coupon.

10. 대화를 듣고, Jazz Music Festival에 관해 언급되지 않은 것을 고르시오.

M: Sally, you look excited.

W: Of course. This poster says there is a festival next month.

M: Let me see. Hmm... The Jazz Music Festival? Cool!

W: Yeah, many famous jazz musicians are coming. I'd love to go there.

M: I know you love jazz. When is it?

W: It's on July 12th. Can you come with me?

M: Sure, I'm available on that day. Let's see where it will be held.
Central Park? It will take more than one hour to get there by car.

W: It will be worthwhile. Eight musicians will make fantastic performances that day.

M: Sounds wonderful. But we'll need to prepare some snacks.

W: Don't worry. The poster says there will be fifteen different booths selling foods and drinks.

M: OK. Then, let's go!

Also, lectures on how to study math will be presented at 5 p.m. each day. 12. 다음 표를 보면서 대화를 듣고, 두 사람이 예약하기로 한 호텔을 고르시오.

M: Honey, do you remember we asked my friend, Justin, to recommend some hotels for our trip?

W: Of course. Did you get his reply?

M: Yes, he has just sent me a list.

W: Let me see. Hmm... I don't want to spend too much money on a hotel.

M: I agree. Less than 200 dollars a night would be reasonable.

W: And I want a hotel near a subway station. Two kilometers seems too far for us to walk to take the subway.

M: Yeah. Free Wi-Fi is also important. I need to check my e-mail account frequently.

W: That's right. Paying for Wi-Fi always feels like a waste. And, don't forget that we have to eat our first night's dinner at the hotel.

M: Well, I don't like raw fish, so I'd rather not go to a sushi restaurant.

W: Then we have only one choice. I will call this hotel to book a room.

13. 대화를 듣고, 남자의 마지막 말에 대한 여자의 응답으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: It's huge! There were lots of collections and displays about the Korean War.

M: Then you saw many things about the war.

W: Absolutely. The museum gave me a feeling for what the Korean War was like.

M: Hmm, I've actually never thought about the war that seriously.

W: Me, either. But the countless names of dead people on a memorial stone there made my heart feel heavy.

M: I didn't know the war was such a tragedy.

W: And, you know what? People from other countries were listed among the soldiers on the stone.

M: Right. So, I wonder what you learned from your visit.

W: _____

14. 대화를 듣고, 여자의 마지막 말에 대한 남자의 응답으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Harry, you look angry. What's wrong?

W: That's too bad. Have you been to customer service to repair it?

M: Yes, I have, but I was shocked at the cost.

W: How much would it cost to get your tablet fixed?

M: It's as much as the cost of a new one!

W: You bought that one last year. Isn't it still under warranty?

M: I had a one-year warranty, and the tablet died when it was one year and one week old.

W: How about asking the staff to be flexible about the warranty period?
It was just one week!

M: Actually, I did, but the staff said the company is very strict regarding their warranty policies.

W: I'm sorry for that. So, what do you think you'll do?

M: _____

15. 다음 상황 설명을 듣고, Diana가 Kevin에게 할 말로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Diana and her coworker Kevin are talking about where to go for lunch. Kevin suggests they eat at his favorite buffet because the buffet serves a variety of foods and they can eat as much as they want. Moreover, this restaurant offers a special discount at lunchtime, so they can enjoy a cost-efficient meal. However, Diana is not pleased with his idea. Because there are so many delicious foods to choose from, she feels like she has no choice but to spend lots of time tasting everything. Besides, whenever she goes to a buffet, she regrets having eaten so much. Now Diana wants to tell Kevin to have something simpler at a different restaurant nearby to save time. In this situation, what would Diana most likely say to Kevin?

[16 ~ 17] 다음을 듣고, 물음에 답하십시오.

M: Hello, everyone. Welcome back to my marine biology class. In the last class, we talked about the behavior of fish. Today, we'll learn about some abilities fish have that allow them to live in their marine environments. First of all, smelling is one of the best-developed abilities of fish. Some fish can detect smells a million times better than humans can. Second, many fish have a sense of taste. They often use their sense of taste to test the quality of the food they're chewing. Next, some fish species have developed sophisticated systems of vision. These systems enable fish to see in low-light conditions, in dirty water, and sometimes even over long distances. Lastly, fish have a sense of touch, which works mainly through their skin. It's possible that fish may use their mouths as touch sensors. Isn't it surprising fish have special abilities just like humans do?
