16번부터 17번까지는 두 번 들려줍니다.

[16~17] 다음을 듣고, 물음에 답하십시오.

M: Are you trying to be a tidy person? It's really difficult to get organized, isn't it? A simple way to get organized is to remove unnecessary things around you. For example, when you're facing a desk covered with papers, throw away the unnecessary ones. If you have old toys that your children don't use any more, it is a good idea to donate them to charity. Have you kept a broken lamp for more than six months? Is it fixed? If not, just get rid of it. The same goes for that flower vase in your living room. If it hasn't had flowers for months, give it away. I'm not saying you should throw away everything. You might want to keep some items for old memories. But you should choose those items carefully. So, why don't you look around and see if there's anything you don't need? By removing these unnecessary things, you can keep your stuff organized.
